CYCLE OF CATECHESIS.

The life of grace according to the Spirit

Dear brothers and sisters!

In recent weeks we have reflected on the cardinal Virtues: prudence, justice, fortitude, and temperance. They are the four cardinal virtues. As we have emphasized several times, these four virtues belong to a very ancient wisdom that predates even Christianity. Even before Christ, honesty was preached as a civic duty, wisdom as the rule for actions, courage as the fundamental ingredient for a life that tends towards the good, and moderation as the necessary measure not to be overwhelmed by excesses. This patrimony that is so ancient, the patrimony of humanity has not been replaced by Christianity, but focused on, enhanced, purified, and integrated in the faith.

There is therefore in the heart of every man and woman the capacity to seek the good. The Holy Spirit is given so that those who receive it can clearly distinguish good from evil, have the strength to adhere to good by shunning evil, and, in so doing, achieve full self-realization.

But in the journey that we are all making towards the fullness of life, which belongs to the destiny of every person – the destiny of each person is fullness, to be full of life – the Christian enjoys special assistance from the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of Jesus. It is implemented through the gift of three other, distinctly Christian virtues, which are often mentioned together in the New Testament writings. These fundamental attributes, which characterize the life of the Christian, are three virtues that we often speak of together: faith, hope and charity.

These three are received in Baptism and come from the Holy Spirit. The one and the other, both the theological and the cardinal, put together in so many systematic reflections, have thus composed a wonderful septenary, which is often contrasted with the list of the seven deadly sins. This is how the Catechism of the Catholic Church defines the action of the theological virtues: "the theological virtues are the foundation of Christian moral activity; they animate it and give it its special character. They inform and give life to all the moral virtues. They are infused by God into the souls of the faithful to make them capable of acting as his children and of meriting eternal life. They are the pledge of the presence and action of the Holy Spirit in the faculties of the human being" (n. 1813). tbc

JUNE – THE MONTH TO HONOR THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

Toronto Archbishop Francis Leo urged the Toronto faithful to honour the Sacred Heart of Jesus by practising humility, being pure of heart and leaning on God when broken-hearted in a letter published for the month of the Sacred Heart.

Archbishop Leo also encouraged every member of the largest Canadian Catholic archdiocese to "join together in celebrating Our Lord with this venerable devotion throughout the entire month. Leo's letter draws from Pope Pius XII's 1956 encyclical Haurietis aquas (You will draw waters) and Sacred Scripture. "Gentle (or meek) points to Jesus' attitude towards others; it is the horizontal dimension whereby he interacts with persons with a courageous but non-violent approach, a truly merciful demeanour, always ready to forgive, but also demanding and challenging – as true, authentic love is," explained Leo. "Humble indicates the vertical plane, the obedient and docile attitude vis-à-vis the Father's will; an interior, free, generous and authentic quality of the heart which is life-giving and which brings about peace." Bishop Leo then highlighted Matthew 5:8 – "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God." He communicated to his flock that the pure of heart would enjoy the splendour of Heaven and see God face to face. Purifying your heart might require you to ask yourself some tough questions.

"Does my heart yearn for the living God," queried Leo. "How precious is it for me to do His will over and beyond all others? Am I attached in unhealthy and slavish ways to my own idols, ideas and ways of doing that are not of God? Is purity of mind, heart and body what I strive for daily?"

Thirdly, Leo cited Psalm 34:18, which teaches us, "The Lord is close to the broken hearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit." He reminded churchgoers that "to live in this world as a follower of the Crucified Lord Jesus means to enter willingly and generously into the misery, pain and brokenness of the other, lovingly trying to bring the healing of our presence and compassion." He added, "The Lord works His marvels in us, to heal us, as we get busy healing others."

The letter's conclusion declared that the Sacred Heart of Jesus is the only symbol required to help people "in better understanding and deeply experiencing the life-giving power of Christ's personal love for them." He also implored readers to "prefer Christ to politicization, devotion to guile, grace to odium, truth to ideology." Read the Archbishop's letter in full on our website or pick up a copy in a foyer. Catholic Register June 3, 2024

END OF SCHOOL YEAR AND EXAMS

We enter the last half of June and yes only 6 mts. till Christmas. For our High School students, it means entering into Exam time. Whether it be our Grade 12's writing their last high school exam or Grade 9's finishing their first full year of High school. Tensions are high and stress is a factor for all of them. During these next few weeks we ask everyone to pray them during this time of preparation. Come Holy Spirit.

FIRST COMMUNION AND CONFIRMATION

Thank you to all of the parents and children who were part of the preparation process for these Sacraments. As a parish we have grown closer to God through your witness and sharing of faith. May God continue to bless all of you as you continue to live out your faith strengthened by the graces of these Sacraments.
